LITERACY ACTIVITY

Log on to Google Classroom and follow the instructions for your Literacy activity today. If you can not, please follow the instructions below.

We are learning to write persuasively

Warm Up: Brainstorm adjectives that describe a flood. Write at least 10 words.

Learning Activity: Writing Activity

Write a letter to Mr Jarius or your teacher convincing them to reopen the schools as soon as possible!

Remember, in your letter, try to include:

- Emotive language
- High modality language
- Alliteration
- Onomatopoeia
- Hyperbole
- Rhetorical questions

PDHPE ACTIVITY

Log on to Google Classroom and follow the instructions for your PDHPE activity today. If you can not, please follow the instructions below.

Example WARM UP activity: Circle Chase

“Students form a large circle facing in an anticlockwise direction. Number each student one, two or three. The teacher calls ‘On your marks’ ... ‘Set’ and then one of the numbers. Students with the chosen number sprint around the outside of the circle in an anticlockwise direction and back to their place again. The students aim to be the first back to their place.”

Use the above warm up activity to create your own variation using similar ideas. Write your “new warm up” activity on a piece of paper at home.

Follow the actions of the instructor in the yoga for kids YouTube video. The link is located below.
